“2008 American Elections”

Guest Speaker

Thomas J. Navratil

Deputy Chief of Mission, US Embassy Skopje

October 16, 2008

American Corner Bitola on October 16th organized the presentation “2008 American Elections” held by DCM Thomas J. Navratil at two locations. The first host was the Faculty of Public Administration where 50 prosperous political students and 10 professors and assistants gathered to participate in the presentation. The presentation lasted more than an hour due to the questions the audience asked and the great interest the students had on the topic. After the presentation DCM Tom Navratil had a chance to meet the Vice Dean of the Faculty. American Corner Bitola was the second host of the presentation on the same topic at 6 pm the same day. A large audience of 22 people gathered and actively participated in various discussions that developed during the presentation. The presentation lasted hour and a half and gave a chance to our regular members of the Corner to understand better the American Political system.
